Amy Brummer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brummer, held her breath as Ryan Branfort, L-Club President, crowned her the Homecoming Queen for 1978-79, on Friday, October 6. Thomas Joos, AFS son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Gourley, proudly escorted Queen Amy and stole his first kiss from an American girl. Dina Cromwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cromwell, escorted by Tracy Jorgesen; Karla Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Little, escorted by Brad Spear; Kathy Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Morrow, escorted by Lonnie Brockway; and Jeana Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Watson, escorted by Kent Garrison completed the court. LHS also proudly presented Bonnie (Larson) Jones, honored Homecoming Queen of 1969, escorted by Bob Byarlay, and Anne (Medcraft) Wilkerson, honored Homecoming Queen of 1959, escorted by Dan Cole. In honor of the Queen and her attendants, Rhonda Herbel and Joan Lagergren sang "Sometimes When We Touch."

During the week the freshmen proved they were no longer green-horns by winning the hall decorating competition. Gail Morgan, Pam Yager and Marla Lee show their spirit on hat-vest-tie day, while t-shirt and sackie day added a bit of variety. Following the afternoon ceremonies, a parade marched downtown for a pep rally, then on to the Leopard Field for a bonfire and the burning of the dummy which hung in effigy during the Homecoming week. In the evening the Lincoln Leopards fought the Lindsborg Vikings in a tremendous battle that ended with a disappointing score of Lindsborg 21, Lincoln 20. Evening escorts were Bob Campbell, Jeff Lonberger, Greg Wassenburg, George Williams, Steve Wallace, John Wolting, and Rodney Wolting. Following the game students and alumni danced to the music of "Plain Jane".

The highly defensive Leopard team gave the fans and also the opposing team very competitive and exciting games. The Leopards started their season by giving the tough Hoisington team a good game, but losing in the last few minutes. The team lost to Sylvan Grove, but came back strong to defeat the Southeast Trojans. The Leopards showed Sacred Heart, a strong team, a close game. The Leopards then lost by one point to Lindsborg, but sprang back the next week to defeat the Ellsworth Bearcats. The Leopards fell to their next opponents, Solomon and Minneapolis. The team ended its season with overtime against Beloit, who were former State Champions. Ryan Branfort was named to the all State Area 2-A team by the Salina Journal. Branfort was also named Best Back and Most Valuable Player. Co-captains for the '78 season were Dan Cole and Ryan Branfort.

Fifteen seniors leave the squad of the tough Leopard team. Here are some comments made by members:

"Had a good time," says Tracy Jorgensen. "Football is a rough, hard-hitting sport," says Larry Meili. "Football was great while it lasted," stated Brad Spear, who sat on the sidelines because of a cycle wreck. "Robbed in the last two minutes of the game," said Dalen Hearn. "Blood and guts make the game more fun. Blood makes the grass grow. The linemen made the holes; the back, well, they fell down before they got there," says John Heinze. "Football, the big American sport, is the spirit of the American people," says Thomas Joos, exchange student from Germany.

LHS girls were given the opportunity to test their football skills at the second annual Powder Puff game. The mighty seniors and fightin' freshmen plotted against the jivin' juniors and stompin' sophomores. However, the Jr.-So. outplayed the Sr.-Fr. during the first and second halves. The Jr.-So. scored twice, clutching 12-0 lead. In the dwindling seconds, all seemed hopeless, but the seniors scored a touchdown. The game went down in LHS history as the highest scoring game 12-6, as the '78 game ended 0-0.

Fifteen girls reported for tennis under the supervision of Mrs. Peggy Rasmussen. The girls faced tough competition but scored a good year and brought home their share of medals.

The A-team schedule played Lyons, Claflin, Belleville, Ellsworth and Lindsborg. The B-team attended matches in Ellsworth, Hays and Sterling.

After the regular season six girls participated in Regionals at Ellsworth. Cathy Bishop and Jackie Jensen competed in singles. Joan Lagergren-Syd Walter and Kathy Hair-Nancy Rasmussen entered doubles. Both doubles worked their way up to the quarter finals.

Six girls received letters: C. Bishop, K. Hair, J. Jensen, J. Lagergren, N. Rasmussen, and S. Walter.

The squad raised spirit as the attendance at pep rallies and games proved. The cheerleaders performed in skits, did pom pom routines, led cheers, and built formations. This group worked hard practicing, and it showed - to us these nine gals were the best in the league, and even in the state.

DAY!

What group of girls rise and shine at 6:30 a.m. to cook breakfast for sleepy-eyed senior athletes — none other than the seniors in Pep Club. During Homecoming week, spirit was shown by wearing t-shirts, hats-ties-vests and football jerseys. Pep Club sponsored the Homecoming dance and for the second year Powder Puff Football. Members also sold shirts, pom-poms, and buttons with key chains. To raise school spirit Pep Club provided megaphones for the most spirited team, most spirited class, the peppiest person and the most encouraging coach. Almost everyone had a good laugh as Mr. Ortiz smacked Mrs. Day with a pie and Brad Spear smeared Mr. Feldkamp. Mona Meili, Pres.; Sara Kuchera, Vice-Pres.; Sheila Sheldon, Sec.-Treas.; and sponsor, Miss Jan Giggy guided Pep Club through the year.

"I enjoyed working with the boys; it was a change from JR. HIGH. It was tough on the boys, the fans, and myself, losing so many close games. The boys should be commended on their attitude considering the competition they played." - Coach Tonne.

"During the 1978-79 basketball season, fan participation started out excellent, but, after being called down a few times, enthusiasm dropped drastically." - Junior Varsity. Lettermen for the 1978-79 season were: Bob Byarly, Bob Campbell, Don Effland, John Rasmussen, Brett Abell, Scott Gorsuch, Don Newell, Wayne Loy, and Scott Campbell. "We ended the season winning three games, but attitude and sportsmanship were excellent." - Coach Tonne.

BASKETBALL

The basketball season for the girls proved exciting as they used their basketball abilities to shock an NCAA crowd, for the Salina Journal had predicted a 6th place for Lincoln. But this group of girls came out with a third place in the league. The bewilderment held through the season, for the heartbreakers continued with four major barnburners. Three games went into overtime: one game, into double overtime.

With the crowd sitting on pins and needles, the girls brought home a first place trophy from the Minneapolis tournament. This team worked as a TEAM, and TEAMWORK was the key to the victories they pulled out.

In their fourth year of competition the Lincoln Matmen had their best season. They opened with two tournaments December 10, 1978. The A squad ventured to Osborne to compete with wrestlers from nine other schools. Lane Gourley placed fourth in the 126 pound weight division.

The B squad met at Minneapolis and competed against wrestlers from six other schools. Thomas Joos placed first in the 167 pound weight class and Troy Brockway earned second in the 105 weight class.

January 22, the Leopard wrestlers won over Herrington by a score of 36 to 34. Mark McCarter, Steve Ryan, and Denton Jorgensen all pinned their men. Perry Zachgo, Tracy Jorgensen, and Mark Murray also scored.

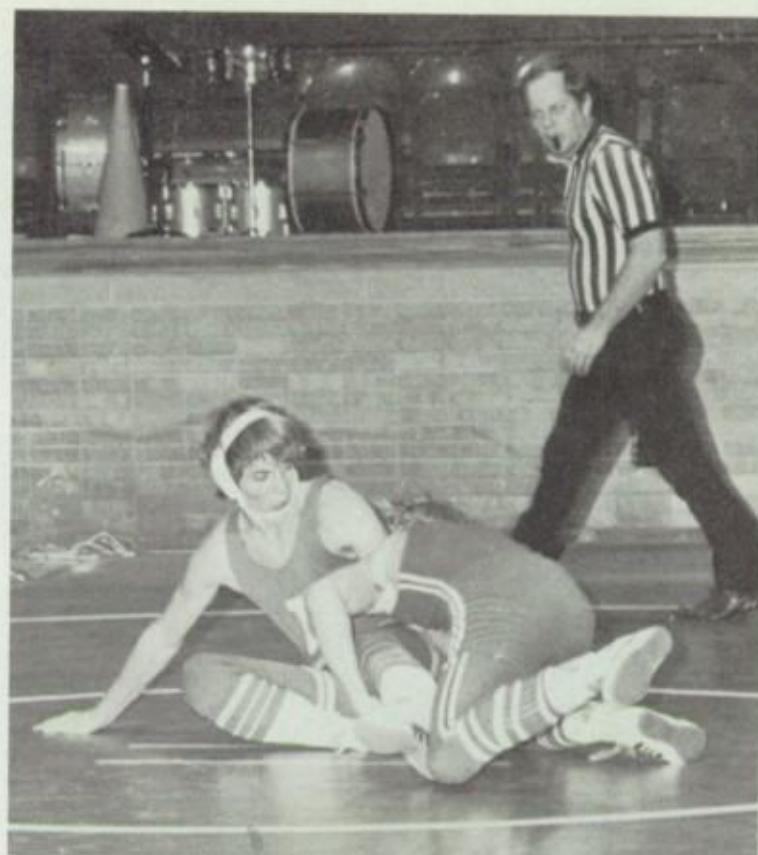

In exhibition Perry Zachgo, Lane Gourley, Mark Murray, Thomas Joos, and Milton Schulz all pinned their men.

At the Riley County Tournament Lane Gourley and Mark McCarter received gold medals for first place. Perry Zachgo, Mark McCarter, Tracy Jorgensen received silver medals for second. Steve Ryan received a bronze medal for third. The wrestlers brought home a second place trophy.

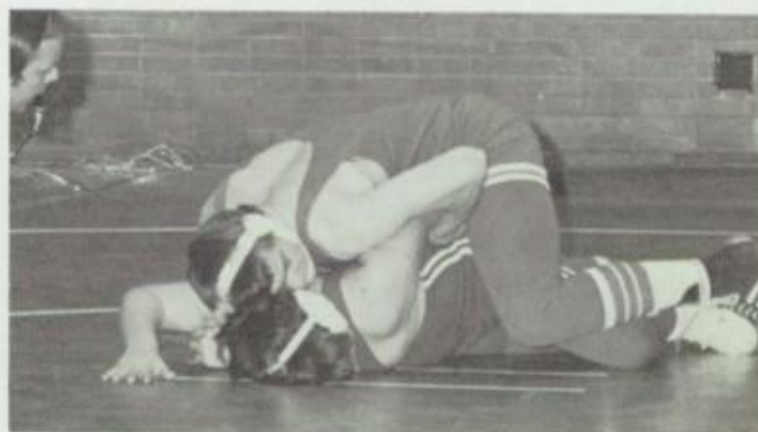

Mark McCarter placed fourth at Regionals and earned a place at sub-state.

Coached by Coach Schmeidler the wrestlers did a wonderful job.

1979 — a truly unusual year, will linger in our memories for many reasons. New fashions surprised the casual observer as nearly half of the students experienced a "frizz" hairdo. Combs popped into fashion occasionally accompanied by a flower. To replace flair pants, straight-leg jeans and slacks regained popularity. These pants were usually worn with high-heeled sandals — a great look, but, oh the sore feet!! Long scarves knotted at the ends and hung around the neck added color and variety. Guys gained a new flair with three-piece suits, and girls added vests to their wardrobes. The vest idea carried over into sleeveless ski jackets that became a very popular winter essential.

Skirts lengthened, and students traded 4-eyes for two as contact lenses appeared not only in the eye but also occasionally on the floor of the halls. Engagements, especially during the latter part of the year flourished. Diamonds sparkled with even the faculty getting into the act as the music teachers, Miss Giggy and Mr. Davis decided to make beautiful music together. Promise rings encircled many fingers, although not all promises lasted out the year.

Students from other countries mixed a bit of their culture with that at LHS. For the first time two, rather than one, AFS students mingled with the students at LHS. Besides Aase and Thomas, four Guatemala girls lived in the area and three attended school. Often the jabber of Spanish and the giggles of these girls sounded above the clatter of the lunchroom as American students wondered what the secrets were. For the first time a fellow senior, Jeff Lonberger, made a summer trip to Iceland and shared his stories of interesting travels.

A bluing wall in the old building created excitement as well as substitute classrooms for one day for science and typing classes, but the problems proved minor and the building still stands sturdy as ever. Track stars emerged from nowhere as a tremendous number of boys and girls participated in track.

Another facet of life this year was snow drifts, listening to KSAL at 6:00 a.m. to hear whether or not buses could plough the clogged highways. If the radio voice announced, "No school for District #298, Lincoln, Barnard, and Beverly, kids yawned, turned off radios, and snuggled under the covers for an extra hour of sleep. Snow also meant cancelled ball games and teams stranded in Salina and Beverly because of a blizzard. So the snow contributed special memories of this winter. As snow disappeared, parking lots filled. But again 1979 was different for the compact economy car out numbered the large gas guzzlers of previous years while gasoline prices soared well on their way to the predicted dollar mark. These events, along with many more, make the LAST OF THE SEVENTIES — 1979, a year to remember!!!

This has been a super year for Vocal and Girls' Ensemble. Our schedule was full with concerts and performances. Starting with the Winter concert we continued with precontest concert, went to league in Ellsworth and state in Concordia where we had a great time. Both Vocal and Girls' Ensemble got IIs at state. Three vocal solos — Brenda Brown, Jeana Watson, and Wilda Brown, got Is at state. We worked hard for Pops concert but also had fun practicing. By the end of the year we were a tight knit group. We couldn't have made it without Miss Giggy's work and patience.

Very Good Season

The Pride of the Saline Valley Band, directed by Glen Davis, performed at home football games, marched in the Homecoming Parade, presented half-time show at Bethany's Homecoming, attended Band Day at Hays. The Concert Band presented spring and winter concerts. The Stage Band played at Beloit, played for neighboring schools, and along with the Concert Band and Vocal Department presented a Pops' Concert with ice cream, fun skits and good music. This was a good year for band.

To start the year, F.H.A. had a watermelon feed for everybody interested in this organization. The club had bake sales and went Christmas caroling. Participation was the key in this successful year. As a community activity each member provided friendship for two people at the nursing home. Both the members and their new friends enjoyed this project. Sweetheart Ball highlighted the activities, for here the members had fun both decorating and later dancing. In the spring the club entertained with its annual tea and style show. Elaine Moss presided at the style show with music provided by the Girls' Ensemble. Officers for the year were Melody Maholland, president; Feona Clark, vice president; Brenda Brown, secretary; and Melinda Briscoe, treasure. Mrs. Mary Jane Day sponsors the club and Mrs. Karen Price served as chapter mother.

On a snowy February 10th couples ventured to the annual Sweetheart Ball. As in the past, Sweetheart Ball, sponsored by F.H.A., was held at the grade school gym. Decorations consisted of red and white pillars, cupids, and a heart of colorful streamers. Students and alumni danced to the sounds of Jack Flash and enjoyed cookies and punch courtesy of F.H.A. Queen candidates were Melinda Briscoe, escorted by Dan Cole; Mrs. Jackie Jensen, escorted by Milton Schultz; Lynn Jewell, escorted by Larry Meili; Joan Lagergren, escorted by Jay Crawford; and JoAnn White, escorted by Tracy Jorgensen. Hearts pounded impatiently as Mr. David tore open the letter and everyone cheered as Jackie was proclaimed Sweetheart Ball Queen.

GOLFERS SWING TOWARD STATE

Three returning lettermen, Milton Schulz, Scott Gorsuch, and Kevin Collins led their team to state play. The golfers progressed from a 9th place at their first meet to a 5th place at Sacred Heart competing against 3 and 4A schools. At the Lincoln Invitational the 4-man team won first with Schulz 1st medalist, and again at Claflin the 4-man team came home with 1st. Kevin Collins placed 2nd and Milton Schulz 4th. In Regionals, played on the Lincoln greens, the 4-man team placed 2nd to qualify for state. Scott Gorsuch missed qualifying for state in individual play by only one stroke.

Seniors — Tracy Jorgensen, Denton Jorgensen, Larry Meili, John Heinze, Lonnie Brockway, Steve Wallace, John Wolting, Dalen Hearn and Mark Benson — deserve credit for leading the track squad in a year of rebuilding. These guys devoted time plus effort to get the program off the ground.

Along with the 9 seniors, 12 juniors, 3 sophomores and 3 freshmen formed the nucleus for a developing track squad which promises a good season next year.

Wayne Loy, a sophomore, qualified for State in 2 events, the shot put, 49' 9½" and the javelin with a throw of 165' 9". Tracy Jorgensen, our middle distance ace, scored consistently in all meets. The 2-mile relay team — Tracy, Gary Aufdemberge, Mike Aufdemberge and Steve Wallace — set a new school record of 9:02. Dan Campbell, Mike Aufdemberge, Brent Little and David Howe also popped the old 440-relay record to establish their own, 48.5. Wayne Loy placed 2nd in javelin in State competition.

Overall the season was good; the guys worked hard. I hope they had fun; I had much fun and learned alot.

German Club this year was especially enhanced by the German AFS student, Thomas Joos. Both Thomas and Mr. Roberts showed slides of Germany. At the Christmas party, all brought native German cookies and sweets. The climax this year was our German Field Day trip to Wichita State University where we brought home many honors. Lynn Jewell took 1st in Advanced Poetry recitation and 4th in Advanced Prose reading. Kraig Nunn placed 2nd in Elementary Prose reading. The ensemble, Karen Kilcoyne, Terri Feldkamp, Shelia Green, Mark McCarter, Kelli Jensen sang their way to third place. The year ended with a "bash" in Herr. Schmidt's room.

Scott and Doug

For the first time in several years, Debate and Forensics were extra-curricular activities. Nevertheless, fourteen students found time to squeeze speech practice into otherwise busy schedules.

Scott Gorsuch and Doug Ortiz were the debaters. Attending Concordia and Minneapolis debate tournaments, the team won third place medals at Minneapolis.

The forensics team competed in four tournaments: Sacred Heart League, Belleville Invitational, Beloit Invitational, and Concordia Regionals. The squad won the second-place Sweepstakes Medal at Sacred Heart. Before State, the team won 13 medals.

Six team members qualified for the State: Dan Cole, Extemp.; Elaine Moss, Extemp. and Oration; Doug Ortiz, Prose Reading; Dan Cole and John Rasmussen, Improv. Duet; Charles Lonberger and Doug Ortiz, Improv. Duet; and Jo Smith, Informative. This Group received three I's and four II's.

Congratulations to the seniors: Jo Smith, Dan Cole, who brought home their ample share of medals in Informative and Extemporaneous Speech.

A special congratulations also goes to the Forensic newcomers of the year: Brenda Brown, Nancy Day, Scott Gorsuch, Holly Hansen, Patty Kissick, Melody Maholland, Don Wahl and Debbie Yager.

The Student Council created activities in an already busy schedule. They sponsored school dances, added a new pop machine, sold chili and gave pizza parties and picnics to raise school spirit. Stuco also purchased the food for the concession stands at both the football and basketball games; this organization assisted the A.F.S. students, and sent two representatives to summer camp. Members supplied smiles when you couldn't find one elsewhere. This friendly group worked to improve the quality of life at LHS.

The juniors entertained the seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom, April 21. The evening began with dinner of smothered steak, corn, baked potatoes, rolls, salad, coffee or tea, and ice cream. Sophomores served the delicious dinner while members of the Eastern Star did the cooking. After the dinner juniors, seniors and their guests traveled to the grade school gym for the dance with "Image" providing the music. Girls in multi-colored formals and guys in tuxedos made the evening one to long remember.

The gym was beautifully decorated in shades of blue and silver. Early in the year, 53 juniors sold magazines, worked at concession stands, and many other money makers to put the prom on in honor of the seniors. Thanks, Juniors, for a job well done — the Seniors.

Servus!

THANKS FOR BEING YOUR FRIEND. "Surprise — you will go to Lincoln, Kansas in your AFS year!" "To where ... ?" I asked. That was before I came here. Now I have stayed here for a year, and I'm sure glad I got to go. I could live here in a different, but nonetheless very nice way of life. After looking back I must say that I don't wanna' miss a minute. I learned a lot and had a lot of fun with those Americans (and I hope they had fun, at least partly, too). I'll go back to Germany, knowing a lot more, but missing—that's for sure—my friends in Lincoln. It was fantastic time and—never know—some day I will come back for a visit to see how "my Lincoln" looks like then.

When I first came here it was hot. Now it is winter and cold, but instead I am warm inside.

I love this school and this town thanks to my family and my friends. I had much fun playing tennis this fall and it was even more fun to play basketball and cheer for the "A"-teams. I have got memories for life, like being snowed in in Beverly. Now I am looking forward to warm sunny days to come. When I go back to Sweden, I will have one year of school left before I go to the university to study electrical engineering. I hope that in three years I will be able to get a summer job in this area so I can visit you all. I am still a Swede but next to that comes America.

Going to Iceland I can truthfully say, was one of the most positive learning experiences that has happened in my life. Since that time, I've had many other learning experiences. Having an alternative view of life with insights into different cultures has strengthened my feelings of self-expression and individualism. Through these experiences, my perspective on life has broadened considerably, allowing for the understanding of the historical development of local cultural morays and acceptance of where they're at without losing my own identity and self-direction. Through AFS I've made several lifetime friends and I am thankful to the AFS committee, especially Lynn Metz, for allowing me this growing opportunity. Thank you yearbook staff, for allowing me this chance to express myself. Afsakid minn mál, Ísland. Vér vilja afturkoma við Ísland, Wendy.

Snow! For the first time in our life.

This year L.H.S. suffered from an invasion of foreigners. It started out with a Swede in July, a German in August, and then Silvia, Amalia, Ana, and Mayda dropped in. Unfortunately Mayda didn't attend school but she visited several times and we saw her at Sweetheart and Prom. Silvia, Amalia, Ana, and Mayda also came to some of our basketball games and then added to the Leopard spirit. Together with 12 other L.H.S. students they went to Medicine Lodge for the AFS round-up. These Guatemala girls, sponsored by the Baptist Church, came here to improve their English. We enjoyed having them here.

The cooks and the bus drivers both deserve a lot of credit. The bus drivers bring us to school through rain, snow, sleet, hail, and slush. But 1979 was different. We ploughed snow, skidded over ice, got stuck, and went into the ditch, but somehow arrived only to have school called off. When we did make it to school, the cooks gave us a good meal to help us through the day. We at LHS are proud to have you serve us. Thanks for a job well done.

David, though he is rolling in the dough, he still pushes the broom and mops the floor for LHS. Thank you David for your good work.

Administration Plus Counselor

Mr. Stephen Schlegel has served as principal for two years. He likes the friendly students, and he likes the way they treat one another. Students will miss his teasing and his smile. In his spare time Mr. Schlegel enjoys hunting, fishing and playing softball. The students and faculty wish him the best.

"My thought about LHS are good ones. My experiences were profitable. My friends at LHS are invaluable. I take these with me. Goodbye and may God be good to you." — Stephen Schlegel

Mrs. Hilgendorf

Who answers the phone, writes out absent and tardy slips, sells lunch tickets and seldom botches the bulletin? She is famous for her bits of wit. None other than Ruthe Hilgendorf. Ruthe's favorite quote, "Always put off until tomorrow what you oughta do today! !!" But we know she does not live by this rule, or LHS might fall apart. Ruthe likes the students because, "They're crazy like me — CRAZY! !!"

Mr. Schlegel visits with Santa —
Mr. Everhart, "Have you been a good boy?"

Mr. Ray Everhart, counselor and co-sponsor of Stuco, enrolls students, sees them through, and assists them in exploring college or in choosing less academic careers. Mr. Everhart feels, however, he receives guidance from the kids. Mr. Everhart's favorite time of year is Christmas as he holds the little boys and girls on Santa's knee. Perhaps he is best known for his "HO-HO-HO!" While he isn't guiding students, Mr. Everhart likes to hunt and fish.

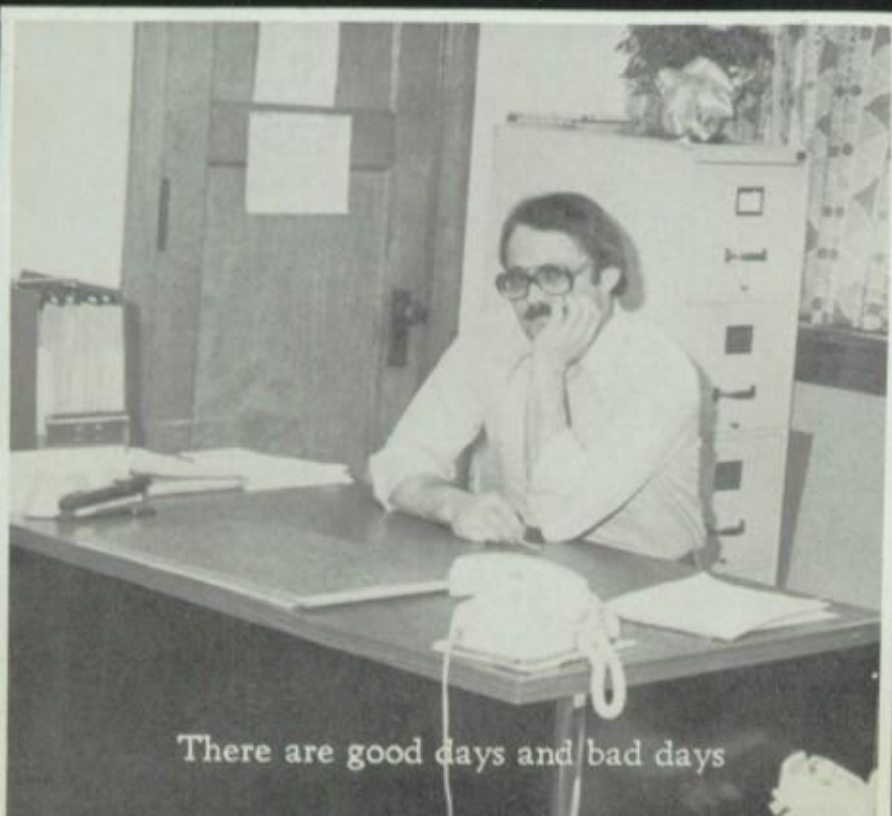

Mr. Everhart

Mrs. Aufdemberge

Mrs. Ella Aufdemberge has proved her efficiency and dependability as a member of the office staff. Mrs. Aufdemberge keeps the books as well as the attendance records at LHS. In her spare time, Ella likes to read and to travel.

There are good days and bad days

Widdle Away In Business

Mr. Ortiz

Mr. Joe Ortiz instructed Typing I and record keeping. Mr. Ortiz also coached football, girls' basketball, and boys' tennis. When asked what he liked most about this year Mr. Ortiz replied, "The basketball, football, and tennis seasons." His most famous quote is, "It's gonna be tough!" In his free time Mr. Ortiz enjoys fishing, golfing, and taking family trips.

Mr. Thompson

Mr. Dean Thompson instructs accounting, economics, business law and drivers' education and serves as Activities Director and golf coach. Mr. Thompson is often heard remarking "At the last resort read the instructions." He likes the way students at LHS handle themselves at activities with other schools. In his spare time, Mr. Thompson enjoys golf, tennis, hunting and fishing.

Mr. Schmeidler

Mr. Darrell Schmeidler instructs Metals I, II, and III, Introduction to Industrial Arts, coaches wrestling and takes care of scheduling buses and of maintenance. Mr. Schmeidler liked most the good wrestling season. He likes the students' willingness to work. He can often be heard saying, "If it's worth doing it's worth doing right!" While he isn't busy with school, Mr. Schmeidler hunts, farms, and goes fishing.

Mr. Gerdes

times it was too short! !! In his free time he likes sailing and rockhounding.

Mr. Wayne Gerdes taught Wood I, II, career math, and freshmen math. Students in his classes are often asked, "When are you going to work?" However, he thinks most of the kids are good workers. Mr. Gerdes is best known for saying, "I cut that board twice and both

Mr. Gary Feldkamp returned to take on math students. He thinks the students are a good bunch of kids and will usually listen. Mr. Feldkamp is most famous for his quote of "Mercy!" While he isn't teaching Mr. Feldkamp is busy farming.

Mr. Feldkamp

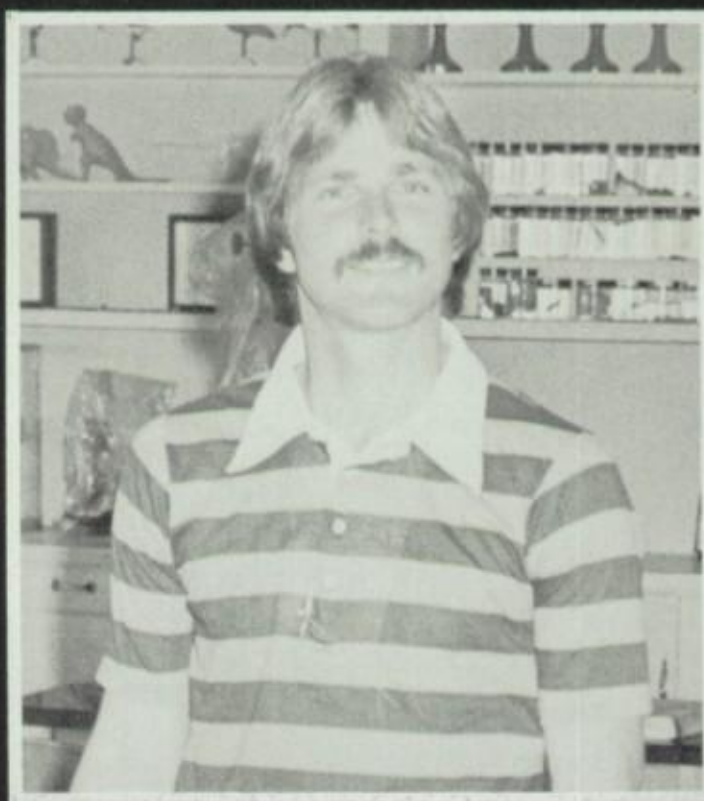

Mr. Schmidt

Mr. Richard Schmidt instructed physical science and German I and II. After over 20 years of service Mr. Schmidt will be leaving LHS. He is best known for asking, "Wer ist der Esel?" ("Who is the fool?"). He enjoys sailing and doing carpentry work.

Mr. Roberts

Mr. Rathbun

Mr. Paul Roberts instructs chemistry, photography, and physics. He also assists yearbook by making available his photography equipment and often giving his time to take pictures. His free time is spent traveling to the mountains, mowing the yard and enjoying rest and relaxation.

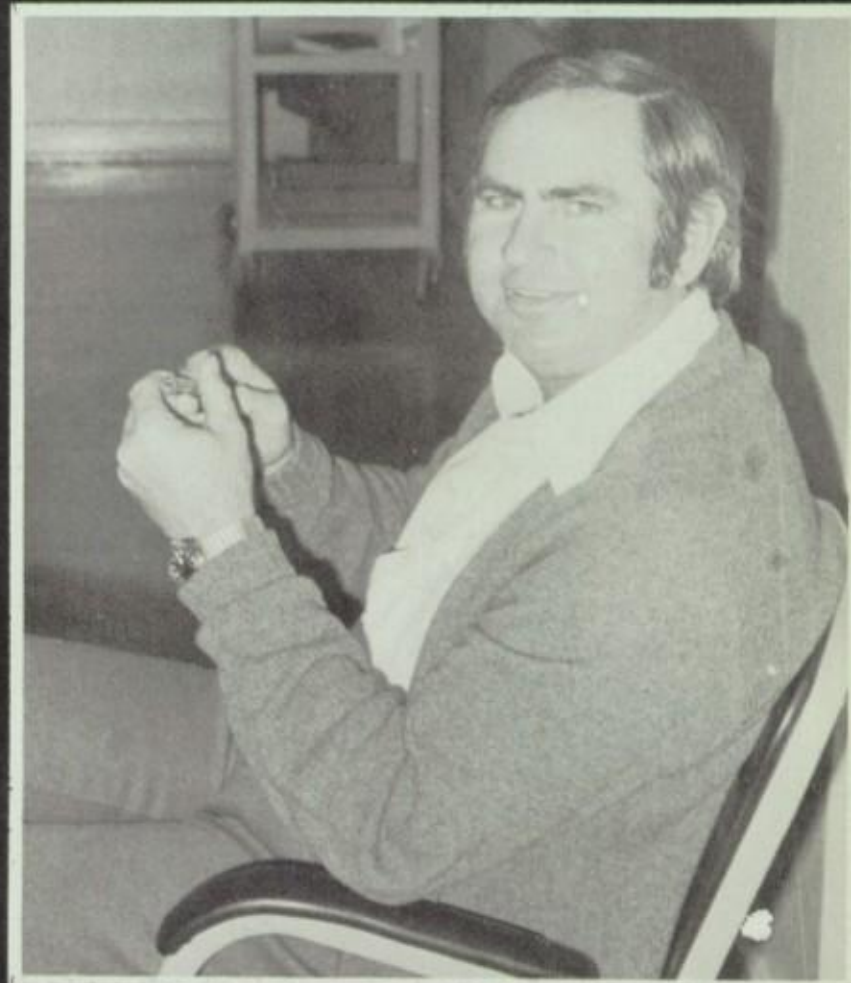

Mr. Dalen Rathbun in his first year of teaching taught biology and coached boys track. Mr. Rathbun felt the students cooperated well, which made his first year much easier. He feels the students have great potential and like to have fun. He enjoys going to athletic events, working on his house, and working with kids in sports.

Teachers Make History

Mrs. Jean B. Marshall graduated from teaching at Lincoln Junior High to teaching at L.H.S. She teaches both American History and Freshmen English where she meets a wide variety of students. Mrs. Marshall enjoys the warm friendliness of the students. Her hobbies include swimming, reading and traveling.

Mr. Charles Newell took on students in government, physical education and driver's education. Most teachers suffer from stress and strain, especially driver education teachers. Mr. Newell believes it is easy to get along with L.H.S. students if they are treated fair and grown-up. He enjoys hunting and fishing in his spare time; in fact, he took Advance P.E. on fishing trips. Mr. Newell can often be heard asking, "Why?" or exclaiming "Horsefeathers!"

Mrs. Barbara Gourley teaches psychology, sociology and world history; besides teaching she sponsors the seniors and Kayettes. Mrs. Gourley likes the students at L.H.S. because of their inquisitive nature and sense of humor. The funniest thing ever to happen in her class occurred when Doug Ortiz was shut in the closet and the door knob fell off. Mrs. Gourley's most famous quote is "O.K., let's get to work!" Maybe that's why her students learn so much.

English Is A Part Of Life

Mrs. Booth

Mrs. Louise Booth, librarian, instructs freshmen speech classes. Her classes are designed to help students relax while expressing themselves, before their peers and to encourage an interest in speech activities. Mrs. Booth likes the students for their friendliness. She greatly appreciated the thoughtfulness of a group of seniors who sent her a get well card while she was in the hospital. Some of her hobbies are gardening, working with flowers, and fishing.

Mrs. MaryAnn Gourley teaches both English and Shorthand I. She sponsors forensics and debate. Mrs. Gourley likes the students at LHS because they are friendly and interesting to work with. Mrs. Gourley recalls one day after lunch she had the hiccups. Acting on the assumption that sudden surprises cure them, Dan Hartzell jumped in front of her and yelled "Rah-h-h!" According to Mrs. Gourley, she hasn't had the hiccups since.

Mrs. M. Gourley

Mrs. Drummet

Mrs. MaryAnn Drummet's classes often hear, "What's the symbolic significance of this event?" Mrs. Drummet teaches English and Yearbook. She loves to watch the way some kids "come to life" on paper and enjoys analyzing various books with them. Mrs. Drummet likes the kids for their active minds, their enthusiasm and their ability to laugh even at themselves. Her hobbies include reading, latch hook, and playing with her grandkids.

Mrs. Peters

Mrs. Ruby Peters, aids Mrs. Booth in the library. She is always there to help students, asking "Is there something I can get for you?" Mrs. Peter's liked the fact, the freshmen were here this year, because her daughter was a freshmen. She feels the kids are good for the most part, trying to grow up in a hectic time. Mrs. Peters enjoys oil painting, reading and crocheting.

DR. DON PHILBRICK D.D.S.

Teaching In The Arts

Mrs. MaryJane Day spends most of her time in the kitchen guiding students in the skills of homemaking. Mrs. Day sponsors both the junior class and the FHA. She recently received honorary membership in the Future Homemakers of America-Hero District C. Mrs. Day was nominated for this honor by members of her local chapter. She likes the kids and enjoys working with them. Mrs. Day's favorite hobbies are sewing and camping.

Mrs. Day

Jean Converse instructs art, physical education and health, and coaches volleyball and track. She likes the students for their initiative in her art classes and in her athletic programs. She feels that potential lurks in their minds and they are a friendly bunch of kids. As hobbies, Mrs. Converse works with miniature art and works on her house.

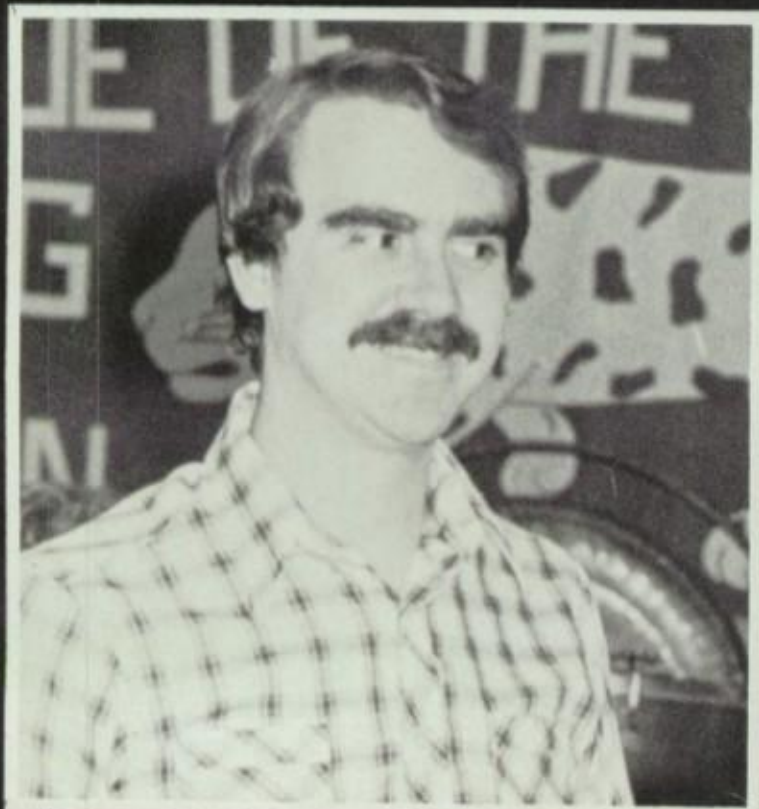

Mrs. Converse

Miss Jan Giggy, a new face, greeted vocal students this year. According to Miss Giggy she enjoyed having the chance to work with some really terrific kids. At times the students would rather not sing, but Miss Giggy persuaded them one way or another. Miss Giggy also sponsored Pep Club. When she isn't singing, Miss Giggy likes to play the piano and remodel houses.

Miss Giggy

Mr. Davis

Mr. Glen Davis instructed band this year. Under Mr. Davis's direction LHS Marching Band played at Fort Hays State Band Day and Bethany College's Homecoming. Mr. Davis worked closely with Miss Giggy to organize several concerts. Mr. Davis' most famous quote is "Ssshhh". In his free time he enjoys remodeling houses.

With the shy freshman times behind the Sophomores moved into action as they flew through their second year in perfect time. Their whispers, their laughs, and their screams livened the halls. With bright new class rings, these 18 girls and 21 boys approached the final days of "Sophomorphism".

The class of '82 entered the halls of LHS a little scared and a little expectant. The class of 20 boys and 22 girls elected the class officers.

As homecoming rolled around the Freshmen Class won the hall decorating contest and received their "Little Frosh".

The Freshmen Class looks forward to an even better year as Sophomores, when they will be one step closer to the glory of '82!

The Juniors pulled together this year as they began the uphill struggle to present the seniors with a prom to long remember. Dawn Price, class president, paved the way in breaking the record for magazine sales with nearly 100% participation. Yet thru all the hard times the juniors grew closer, proving that it's not all work and no play when attempting to tackle a tuff task. The seniors would like to thank you for supporting them and the school and will always remember what you have done for them.

"We do not remember days.

It's time for us to say good-bye

The Class of '79.

Off to college, off to work, you go your way

I'll go mine.

We've lived, we've laughed, we've learned, we've loved four important years.

We must part now leaving life-long friends shedding many tears.

But ahead our lives are waiting holding all our cherished dreams.

We should set our goals on the stars no matter how far they seem.

Keep a smile on your face and a warm place in your heart for the friends you have found.

The "excellent" memories of the Class of '79-

will always be around.

Karla Little
